

A Bead Cornucopia Ann Gray $27.95 950-766

950-766

Welcome beaders! Choose a lovely but simple metallic necklace in earth colors or work on an intricate lacy, web-patterned collar or even bead an abstract neck adornment with golden highlights. Ann Gray, inspired by her love for nature, copies the wildness and symmetry such as is found in the sea or the winter sky. One colorful necklace takes its vision from ancient Egyptian motifs. The diagrams are nicely expanded so that you can think your way through them visually and logically. Also given are clear verbal directions. Gray's studies in art and fashion, focused on beadwork, have benefited lucky beaders.
