

Time to Weave Jane Patrick $26.95 950-1029

Fiber enthusiasts are always interested in getting their hands into a different textile art. This book is the perfect book to introduce weaving to the novice in an approachable and inspirational fashion. Traditional and ancient techniques are drawn on using simple equipment and tools and most projects don't require a loom! Braided mats, necklace with beads, woven paper cards, waves window hanging, and plaited paper basket are just a few of the appealing and "do-able" weaving projects.
