

Nezhnie, Weaver and Innovative Artist

Linda Rees

$34.95 950-1047

This book chronicles the journey of fiber artist Muriel Nezhnie Helfman, best known for her tapestry series depicting Images of the Holocaust. Author Linda Rees traces Nezhnie's ardent journey to become one of the greatest weavers of her generation, providing compelling insight into a woman striving to establish her identity as an artist, mother and wife in pre-feminist America.
