

Eight Shafts-A Place to Begin Wanda Shelp & Carolyn Wostenberg $44.00 950-031

In style and format, this book closely resembles Davison's "Handweaver's Pattern Book." For each draft, there's a tie-up, several treadling variations, and each treadling sequence is illustrated with a woven swatch. There's a heavy emphasis on twills followed by some color weave effects, and then a number of Shadow Weave patterns. Basically this is a pattern book, and there are few words and many patterns. Looking for an 8-harness pattern book? This one is easy to follow. Profusely illustrated.
